The list of women and girls who laid down their lives during Iran protests

Women are leading a revolution in Iran. The Iranian people's nationwide protests started on September 16, 2022, after the death of a young Kurdish woman, Mahsa Amini, in the custody of the Morality Police, or Guidance Patrols. The NCRI Women's Committee publishes a list of women and girls who have lost their lives in the fight for freedom and equality in Iran.

The People's Mojahedin Organization of Iran (PMOI/MEK) has obtained and published the names of 647 protesters who laid down their lives for Iran's freedom until Day 140. The Iranian regime's security forces and IRGC have killed at least 750 persons during Iran protests.

An estimated 30,000 young men and women have been arrested during the uprising and detained under inhuman conditions in overcrowded prisons. They are under torture to make false confessions. The clerical regime has so far executed four protesters.
